Ever wonder how we learn language? How do babies segment the continuous speech stream? How do they learn the meanings of words and the structure of sentences? Topics in this course include the acquisition of phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, the lexicon, sign language, bilingual acquisition, and language disorders. Prerequisite is LING 101.